MEMBER EXPECTATIONS:

As a collaborative membership organization, the Farm Alliance of Baltimore (FAB) depends on the active participation and input of its members. All members are expected to:

- Adhere to FAB's Membership Agreement: Commit to supporting the Farm Alliance's mission and aligning with its stated values.
- Active Participation: Engage in FAB activities and respond to communications in a timely manner. Attend at least 50% of monthly membership meetings.
- Respectful Conduct: Treat all FAB members, staff, and board members with respect and compassion.
- Serve on FAB Committees: Participate in a committee, the Board of Directors, a working group, or a caucus to support FAB's organizational needs.
- Complete Required Surveys: Participate in FAB's annual survey and any additional surveys administered throughout the year.
- Update FAB on Operational Changes: Notify FAB of any updates to your operation that directly impact your membership (e.g., changes in staffing, land tenure, mailing address).
- Pay Dues Promptly: Ensure annual dues are paid within 30 days of receiving the invoice. If a farm's parent organization covers dues, the member representative is responsible for completing paperwork and confirming payment within 30 days of signing.
- Support FAB Programs: Understand that membership dues fund FAB's programmatic work.
- Assist with Strategic Planning: Contribute to the organization's strategic planning efforts.
- Commit to Mutual Aid: Offer mutual support to other members in times of need.
- Commit to Sustainable Practices: Engage in farming practices that improve environmental quality and promote the well-being of farmers and communities.
